

■ BANKING

The Bank of San Antonio has named Rob Glenn as the new executive vice president - Commercial Banking. Glenn has over 23 years of experience in the San Antonio Banking market and has handled a wide array of middle market Professional Services and Commercial Business sectors in San Antonio. He was with Compass Bank for 14 years prior to joining The Bank of San Antonio.

Stone
ENGINEERING

Najarian
ENGINEERING

Estes MEDICAL

Mann
MEDICAL

■ ENGINEERING

Structural Engineering Associates Inc. welcomes Amy M. Stone, PE to the firm. Stone has over 11 years of experience in the structural design of buildings and bridges and will utilize this experience in her role as project engineer. Mehdi "Cyrus" Najarian, EIT has also joined the firm where he will be providing structural design for various transportation and commercial projects.

■ FINANCE

Accretive Solutions has hired Doug Mzyk and Kim Feltner. Mzyk, was most recently CFO for SSI Group Holding and has come on board as the VP/market leader for the San Antonio office. He has extensive experience in strategic planning, process improvement, turnaround management, risk management, capital investment and financial modeling. His client base included multiple Fortune 100 companies and Venture Capital groups. Feltner is Accretive's new project services/executive search coordinator. Feltner has extensive experience in consulting, accounting management, project management and process improvements.

■ MEDICAL

Southwest Mental Health Center (SMHC) welcomes Katrina L. Hallmark, Psy.D., a psychologist specializing in neuropsychology, as the newest member to its team. Hallmark specializes in child neuropsychological assessments, evaluating developmental and neurocognitive skills and abilities, and providing educational and behavioral management recommendations. Her extensive training and years of experience expands SMHC's psychological assessment and treatment capabilities in the area of early childhood disorders, developmental disorders and learning disabilities. Prior to joining SMHC, she maintained a private practice in Miami, supervised interns and practicum students at Carlos Albizu University and served as a forensic psychologist at several correctional facilities in Florida.

Touchstone Communities has named Margaret Estes as administrator and Joy Mann as director of nursing of The Heights on Huebner. As administrator of The Heights on Huebner, Estes brings more than 10 years of long-term care administration experience. During Mann's 15 year career she has cared for countless elders.

■ NONPROFIT

Reagan Allen, who began with Morningside Ministries as the corporate director of sales and marketing at Morningside, was recently promoted to vice president of marketing and assisted living. As vice president of marketing and assisted living, Allen will continue to lead system-wide business development functions at Morningside, in addition to overseeing the management and operation of two of Morningside's assisted living communities. Allen has worked in the assisted living industry of more than 12 years, in both operations and sales and marketing. He joined Morningside in June 2008. Before coming to Morningside, he worked for various senior communities as a director of operations and as an executive director in Houston and San Antonio. Suzanne Huber is the executive director of Morningside at Menger Springs' new skilled nursing and rehabilitation community, The Kendall House Wellness and Rehabilitation Center. Huber most recently served as the executive director of the Golden Manor Jewish Home for the Aged, where she oversaw all departments and directed all facets of budget planning and initiated financial strategies. Prior to Golden Manor, Huber was an adjunct professor in sociology at St. Philips College and served as an administrator for Social Work Services. She was a parole officer with the Texas Youth Commission and case manager with the Center for Health Care Services, as well as a social worker with the Bexar County Adult Detention. As executive director, she will be responsible for directing and coordinating all functions at The Kendall House, including hiring and developing staff, recommending policies, plans and procedures to the president, ensuring sound financial position and managing the appropriate safety and care of all patients.